» The 2005 MLS SuperDraft™ will include four rounds and 48 overall selections. Once a team has passed, it may no longer participate in the Draft (e.g. may no longer select players, use a timeout, etc.)

Selection Clock

» Teams are permitted five (5) minutes to make a selection in the First and Second Rounds

» Teams are permitted three (3) minutes to make a selection in the Third and Fourth Rounds

Intermissions

» There will be a five (5) minute break between each Round

Timeouts

» Each team is permitted only one (1) timeout

» Timeouts are five (5) minutes in duration

» Selections must be made immediately following the timeout (no additional time given)

» More than two (2) timeouts cannot be utilized consecutively

Failure to Make Selection in Designated Time

» Teams that fail to make their selection in time must wait until the next selection is made, regardless if their choice is presented prior to the next team's decision

» The team that was delinquent with its selection must immediately have its choice in hand following the selection of the team that followed. If not, the original team must again wait for the next selection to be made

Trades

» Prior to being announced, trades need to be verified and approved by the Commissioner or his designee
